DISCLAIMER

The information on this web site is a partial summary of the practice and philosophy of reconstructive breast surgery. The information you find on this site is intended for general purposes only and is not intended to nor implied to be a substitute for professional medical advice relative to your specific medical condition or question. The information on this web site is not a guide to treatment and it should not replace seeking medical advice from your physician.

The web site developers (Dr. Kyle Wanzel and Dr. Mitchell Brown) recommend that you consult your physician or other medical professional for insight into your specific condition and medical options.

Drs. Wanzel and Brown do not warrant the accuracy, completeness, correctness, timeliness or usefulness of any information contained herein. In no event will Drs. Wanzel and/or Brown be liable to anyone for any decision made or action taken in reliance upon the information provided through this web site.

You will hold Drs. Wanzel and/or Brown harmless for liability from any such actions or decisions taken by you in reliance upon such information.

Drs. Wanzel and/or Brown make no representations or warranties with respect to the practice of reconstructive breast surgery. Their opinions and methods of diagnosis and treatment change regularly, as new information and techniques become available.

Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery is a very complex field. It cannot be fully or adequately described in any web site. The field is rapidly changing and information contained in a web site can become out-dated very quickly. Therefore, this web site may not always reflect current opinions or practices.

The information on this web site cannot and does not represent Drs. Wanzel's and/or Brown's current approach, attitudes or methods of treatment in their practices. Drs. Wanzel and/or Brown and their officers, directors, employees and agents shall be indemnified and saved harmless against all liability and damages including special, consequential or punitive damages arising out of claims arising from the use or distribution of information originating on this site or sites linked to this site.

While this web site links to other web sites, Drs. Wanzel and/or Brown are not responsible for any information found on these or any other associated or linked web sites. The links we provide are not in any way an endorsement of the information you may find on those sites.

The photos on this web site are not intended to represent the results that every patient can expect. Surgical results can vary greatly from patient to patient.
